IL 1063 PARE ROW, NEW YORK.

MONDAY EVENING, FEB. 27.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD (Including Portage).

unfavorably. by comparison with the Cabinet it and Vol. 33...... No. 11,514 coeds. Secretary Poster is a fair man.

Intered at the Post-Office at New York as second- ness for Secretary of State with Judge

EF BRANCH OFFICES ORLD UPTOWN OFFICE 1257 BROADWAY. WORLD HARLEM OFFICE- 125TH ST. AND

MADISON AVE. or MILLER with OLNEY

CIRCULATION GREATER than that of any other newspaper.

139,262,685 WORLD5

were printed and circulated in 1892.

This is a gain over 1891 of 23,724,860.

The average per day in 1892 was trary opinion and dissented from the de-380,499.

A gain per day over 1891 of 63,958.

THESE GREAT TOTALS

were never before equalled by regarding the decision is revolutionary any paper printed in the Eng. and should cease. lish language.

THE WORLD will not, under any circum- denditure of the State's money for various errer, held trety responsible for the return lawful purposes. It has also elected a is toge-keep to g of only rejected manuscripts. Uni'ed States Senator. As it was then ing femere, conchatemer character er raise. Le exception swill be made to this rule with tererd to either letters or inclosures. Nor 1 title editor enter into correspondence conunt try motallable manuscripts.

THE EVENING WORLD'S Net paid bona fide actual daily

Average Circulation

g creater than the combined circulation of the > Evening Sun, flail and Express, Evening Post. Commercial Advertiser. Evening Telegram.

This week will close under the new Administration.

The sun has not forgotton how to shine

Columbia will draw a long breath when the Fifty-second Congress adjourns with-

It has been some days since the latest which no hing appears to justive. An- A limit early Spring. The plants are nearly plans for a new theatre or a sky-scraping other American crim's account reaches. over sixteen million trans. hotel were appounced in New York.

In intrusting its " 100" to the tender those who hendled the Company's millercies of the World's Fair city New York will throw a heavy responsibility "'placed" its securities here were the upon Chicago.

New York would appreciate an Easter sional Committee to turn its flashlight in token made up of a real Rapid Transit this direction? promise. Home Rule for the municipal. ity and clean streets.

New York liverymen who had sleighs rolled members of the Brooklyn Consolienough on hand for this Winter will be dation League now number within a few able to take in the World's Fair without of five hundred, embracing many of the pinching themselves.

Notwithstanding the old legend that association only, and it is increasing her are said to be worth $500,000. "it takes nine tailors to make a men," rapidly. As soon as two thousand names the supply of tailor made men is kept are on the list, regularly authorized constantly up to the demand,

A promising plan for disposing of the all are in carnes; and resolved to work coled that Paul B. for Chaitin's stories about ci v garbage by cremation is suggested by the City Surveyor. To burn the stuff is time the associationists will do good credence by old people as well as young,

The New York of to-day will do credit the question, and for more honest rep in the Senste when Mr. Blatte was there. Tork of old by earrying out the proposed defeated by the refusal of the Legisla who can leil a patient at once what is the only man defeated by the refusal of the Legisla. on the reservoir site at Forty-second to the people.

Ex Speaker Bren expresses disappoint. March 2 to attend the joint meeting of the ment that he was not called to the Cabi. Senate and Assembly Committees to be net. Of course this is Mr. REED's little held on that day for a hearing on the joke. But what a refinement of cruelty Concol dation bill. It is a reflection on it would be to offer to the ex-Czar the mission to St. Petersburg.

Concol dation bill. It is a reflection on the honesty of the Legislature that such a tract with his tail r to pay at a night for the hearing should be necessary on a bill which simply provides that the people.

street and lifth avenue.

A Rowan la | wo can have been driven shall be afforded an opportunity to say, insane by listening to her paster's partic by their ballots, whether they do or do ularly vivid description of the post- not desire the union of the two municimortem forments await ng the wicked. palities. It would seem to be time to draw a line on realism in the pulpit as well as on the

All Sioux City, Ia., is laughing at a the retirement of the present Administrahuge joke on a local doctor. The physication from power seems to have failed. Georgic cian was called to a hospital to treat two. The chance of its approval before next after school nearly every day." men, one of whom had delirium tremens. Saturday seems now to be very slight. while the other was suffering from con- Only the parties personally interested cu-sion of the brain due to a fall. The in the scheme will regret this result. A ambulance man mixed those patients up, policy of such doubtful expediency and and the consequence was that the doctor so subversive of the principles that bave treated the cases to "v.ce versa" reme- heretofore guided our Government ought dies. All came out well in the case of the not to be adopted without more mature man who fell, but the fellow with the consideration than it has yet received. jun-jams yielded up his life under treat. Nor should we as a great and powerful ment for concussion of the brain. The nation, risk doing injustice to the people CRUEL REVENCE ON A WIDOW. apparent at this distance. It will not be annexation were conceded to be strange, however, if the relatives of the own interest.

Well, the Democratic party is fully sat-but would anybody compare him in fit-

Who would venture to compare CHARLES

We can now afford to be silent about thankful that it is an able, upright,

OBEY THE DECISION.

Two of the Supreme Court Judges in Kansas, both Republicans, bave decided that the Republican House of Representatives is the regular and constitutional body and that the Popullst House is ir.

Judges, a Populist, bas delivered a con-the judgment reached by the Court is political in its character. This does not necessarily imply that the decisions are dishonest on either side, but that they sentiments of the Judges.

are influenced unwittingly by the political

Whatever may be thought of the legal soundness of the decision of the majority.

it is the judgment of the Court, and as such must be obeyed, upless Aparchy is prima facir the constitutional body, it is The political situation in Kansas will not be changed in any material respect by the decision. The Republicans being in a minority in the Senate could not nor would veto them if they should be passed. Hence the whole matter has teen a tempest in a tempot. But the now developed. The accountant of the French Government who has been extoralleged work on the caral are enormous, and that the absence of you hers

Among the "services" rendered by making of these American contracts.

Would it not be well for the Congres-

WORKING FOR CONSOLIDATION

Ward associations will be formed.

P OBABLE FAILURE OF ANNEXATION.

The attempt to "railroad" the Hasitian treaty through the Senate before nize its right to elect a Senato ..

to be hoped that it is now over.

will do good service to the nation.

ideal Secretary of the Nave.

less he may be.

next Administration, after Minister STEVENS's successor has made an im-A few Republican Senators notably enator have express the opinion that partial investigation of the wishes of the people of the 1s ands. Mr. CLEVELAND's Cabinet is a strong one. Some joke about it, and others criticise it

The Senate deserves praise for its conservative attitude in the matter.

It will be better, for obvious reasons, to isfied, and no one feers that it will lose Anybody who hasn't a tador's bitl of his own and is anxions to acquire one erected money expense at the Real Estate Ex. ever is, it will not be at all surpris change to-morrow. Tailors' bills rang. If the mysterious persecutor of Mrs. GRESHAM? Secretary Trace in the best man Mr. Hannison called to his counsels, 1 ing from $10 to $20 in perpendicular Mary From, the widow of John Frost, height and aggregating over $11,000 will the village blacksmith, who died sudbut Mr. HERDERT, with his large experience in naval legislation, will make an be offered for sale there to the highest bidders.

"HE THRILL OF THE TAILO" 8 BILL

FORTER WITH CARLISLE, STEPHEN B. ELEINS man with the most magnificent case of state of affairs in which Widow Frost with LAMONT, WANAMAKET with BISSELL presbyopia that it is possible to possess. Is involved, came out when the followwould not be able to discern in the remotest reaches of his vis on the date when any of them stands a chance of being settled. That is why the tailors upon whose disks they have become discolored and dust-ridden will put them up at pub.
lie tendue; it is more for the purpose of Secretary Noner, as he is on the point of retiring, and no person feels unfriendly to the amnable Jerry Rusk, however use-Whatever the Republicans may think of the new Cabinet, the people will be he tendue; it is more for the purpose of honorable, working body and one that and dust ridden will put them up at public tendue; it is more for the purpose of getting them off their minds and hands than in the hope of realizing a cent on the dollar from any of the obligations.

There are plenty of men on this planet who do not know the delight of being a tailor and seeing men pass the shop every day wearing clothes that have emanated from that shop but that have most been paid for. Purchase of a tailor's bill cannot make a tailor out of a man or out of nine men for that matter, but it can let in a little light on the tailoring business and acquaint the acquirer of the bill with one of the joys of a tailor's bill cannot the joys of a tailor's bill and the man who owes a tailor's bill and the man who owes a tailor's bill and the man who is trying to collect it, in nine hundled and nine'y-nine out of one thousand cases the man who owes has the more of processing the above notice, which is a profession of the proportions. An evening world accust ment to the proportions of the proportions and it will be surmised.

Even the parson of St. Stephen's a method of the poys of a tailor's bill and the man who owes a tailor's bill and the man who is trying to collect it, in nine hundled and nine'y-nine out of one thousand cases the man who owes has the more of the man who owes has the more poor woman by some enemy.

Stonewall Jackson, and best man who is small sheets of paper hearing the above notice, which were circulated above notice which were circulated with the production of some one who was in an ordinary stiff thand, undoubtedly the production of some one who was in an ordinary stiff thand, undoubtedly the above in the paper hearing the above notice, which were circulated with the production of some one who was not accustomed to your some who was in an ordinary stiff thand, undoubtedly the production of some one who was not accustomed to your land, undoubtedly the production of a sected with the production of a sected with the production of a stail of village like Kingsbridge, when believe that regular and unconstitutional. One of the cision of his associates. It is evident that to prevail. All talk of resisting and dis-The Legislature as hereto'ore organized and recognized by the Clovernor has enacted several laws and authorized, the ex-scarcely likely that any Court or the reorganized Legislature would refuse to Shakesheare says "All the world's a stage, legalize its acis. No ther is it clear how but as it makes only one trip a year it would the United States Senate can fail to recog-

> She's on the Progremive. Now. [From the Buffs's Times Education is not computatory in Himois. But then Himois was a Republican State until last pass any party measures, and the Goverwith the charact of Progress so soon. The Day Greshum Celebrates. There is no trish-American in President Clovestrain has been a perilous one, and it is land's tabuest, but it will have been observed

The Irgalla Vo case.

A new phase of the Panama scandal is The Cenar Rapple Gazette nominates John J. prictor of one facial volume situated just below amining the books and papers reports his mustache and to the north of his chip, and it that the amounts received by contractors erupts with great success What Heres to This? remiers it impossible to tell whether the Foreur sangart we believe that a plant, comwork was executed. The American mon-serie itizen with good business solity Dredging Company's charges amount to could make a better candidate than a "splen-did" man. between sixty-none and seventy mulion Winter of Democratic Discontent Almost francs, and there is an unexplained "indemnity " item for eleven, million features.

Rush's Road to Forstveness. this side of the Atlantic and lamb the slush and will be forgiven.

It is gratifying to know that the en-most prominent and reputable residents doubtless true of our sister city. This is the central

As every member pays an entrance fee

y getously for consolidation. At election gardias and dwarfs are facts and entitled to service at the polls for Greater New Staty four of the United States Senators are has plan of re-creeting the present City Ifa | ture to allow the question to be sai mitted, with him and what course of treatment will suit him best is the medical student or the very me vonthint practitions Three hundred members of the Assocation will visit the State capital on any year since 1872. It has been colder in Virginia this year than Se

Hart I uck.

A Great Trip.

Reas-is Sagler head over heels in debt?

ise-Well, I should say so. I held four aces

Very Affectionate.

Spare Pearline Spoil the Wash leave the question to be settled by the Mrs. Frost's Malicious Enemy Announces a Wedding for Her.

> All Kingsbridge Indepent at the Unknown Slanderer.

town of Kingsbridge have a mystery on their hands.

When the cloud is rolled away, if it dealy a few months ago, is subjected to a well-deserved coat of tar and feathers. These bills have not been paid, and a the village had of the really serious stending on the parajets of time and ing notice was circuitted in their midst; preving far forward into the future, will be a GREAT SUBFRISE TO HIS PRINCES.

who is trying to collect it, in nine hundered and nine'y-nine out of one thousand cases the man who owes has the more patience and does the less walking.

Owing to pressure of business at Washing to pressure of business at Washing to pressure of business at Washing to pressure who were last heard of in sessinal lest Wednesday, will go light on business at All any this week. It is trusted than none of them will forget where he is set.

SPICED SCISSORING;

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Times |

Old Farth's Wears Reand, The and the Philadelphia Tim children.

It is because of her proud spirit that she was both indignant and almost leartbroken when the cruel report of her approaching marriage with Edward Martin was falsely and maliciously cir-cuinted.

He and his brother, Dr. Thomas Martin, the village physician, were among the foremost of Mrs. Frost's friends, who came to her aid in the hour of distress, as were a'so all the other people interviewed in connection with the reported wedding.

Edward Martin is a well-to-do teamster, thirty years of age, and it is said amb the study and clop of the past few weeks will be forgiven.

WORLDLINGS.

WORLDLINGS.

Few of what sell as kit gloves are restly made of kit-skim. Some of them are manufactured of lambeskin, and the more expensive of the skin of Johns soils.

Reservation of the mall clours so-called Joke. Mr. Lane is a next door neighbor. He and his family have been every kind to me, and he has received a share of the state.

There is a street car line in the Argentine Republic that is fifty indiction, and therefore the ionsest in the world.

There is a street car line in the Argentine Republic that is fifty indiction, and therefore the ionsest in the world.

It is said that there are more herring eaten than any other kind of fish. Considering the large consumption of sardines the statement is doubtless frue.

The fine laces owned by the Vanderbilt families are said to be worth $6.00,000.

Rabbut hundlar flourishes in Kansas, and from Mar Pherren shore 15,000 of the little animals have been shipped to market.

Lewer than 17,000 Fruestans have incomes of more than $5,000 a year.

The American Georraphica' So fety has declined that Famil B. Du Chainta's stories about the portions and dearfy are faces and entited to be involved in any difficulty with people whose only object seemed to be to make my life unpleasant. I don't care free feedence by old people as well asyouns.

notoriety.

I am glad that 'The Eventing World' is learned of the nixter for now I av find a little beace. My life has en a torment too land to bear," went Mrs. Frost, and I have often wished with it were dead. I can stand this last piece of abuse, I suppose, as I have stood all the rest, but to think that these who have been so generous to me should be made ridiculous grieves me more than I can tell.

"This Mrs. dackson, whom this person terms Stonewall, was recently married, and is made the subject of ridicule of my account.

"As to Mr. Martin marrying me, why that is so ridiculous that any one who knows him can detect right away the intent of this person who is posing as a practical loker, but really is trying to injure me.

Injure me.

Among a lot of other things which the whito exhibited as evidence of her persecution was some lines which bad been copied from a valentine sent her on Feb. 14 last. The picture was a ridiculous sketch of an old crone seeling to ensuare a husband, but who had been unsuccessful in making a matrimonial alliance.

These were the lines:

For forty year on have tried.

For forty years you have tried, To call a husband to your ade, Hur your of and battered art will fir And leave you a griss old maid to die.

From Harper's Bazar.

"I suppose your teacher is very fond of you, seorgie?"

"Yes. She keers me with her two hours iter school nearly every day."

The little town of Kingsbridge has taken up Mrs. Frost's cause and will seek to unearth the originator of the seandalous goesip, even if the aid of the police must be invoked.

Merely & Suggestion.

. The liberty cap should no longer be the emblem of France."
"Why not? What should you substitute?
"The Panama hat."

THE WORLD: MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 27, 1893. AND has the brim fully draped. A large feather The good people of the pleasant little starts from the back on each sign of the first, crown are three wild roses made of violet velvet. The under part of the brim is smoothly covered with velvet.

The Intest Paris Hat.

Mrs. Hoke Smith, wile of the next Secretary of the Interior, is a very youthful and attracwhite complexion and a face whose sweet and happy expression betokens a nature full of comfort in all the blessings of a happy byle domestic existence.

credited to her. She is a good wife and and my hostesses were ignorant of French, mother, for she has several children, and she The women are alm stentirely uncludated. The broth was then poured off, and the meat has the biggest kind of a heart for the unmost of them being ignorant even of their own allowed to brown in its own int.

most of them being ignorant even of their own.

age. They are taught by the Koran that. The grease was then poured off and a par her husband are noted for their unostenta- they have no souls. Their only accomplish- of the broth-now settled, skimmed and tions but generous charities. Anchory Toast.

Wash five or six anchovies, and cut off their heads and fins, bone them, and divide into two pieces. Make some buttered toast, iny the fish on it, adding mustard and cayenne to taste. Novels at a Lunchean

An original klad of luncheon was recently given by a young American woman in London, who arranged that each of her guests should be dressed in a costome representing some well-known novel. A prize was awarde to the best costume, and another was given to the guest who should most correctly guess the names of the books from the dresses representing them. One lady were a network of twisted cords all askew and tied here and there with cords and tassels. She wa Oliver Twist " (all-of-a-twist). Another, all in brightest red from nead to foot, was easil guessed as Conan Doyle's "Study in Scarlet.

Two cunces spermacett, two ounces white wax, one-fourth pint oil of sweet almonds, one ounce camphor. Shred the wax and Edward Martin is a well-to-do teamster, thirty years of age, and it is said that he is engaged to a pretty girl in Kingsbridge.

He was a very mad man when an "Evening World" reporter asked him about his contemplated wedding with the Widow Frost.

"It's a lie," said he, "an infernal lie, told by some one to injure me. I have befriended Mrs. Frost in different ways since her husband died. My brother and i assisted in settling up her husband's the little Hammersley boy who lives with the manufacture in the world is the little Hammersley boy who lives with spermaceti, melt it in a jar with the oil, then the margin of the pag tie a long looped bow. thoroughly dissolved and are beginning to the bottom of the bag.

his parents in a handsome house on Fifth in two weeks."

The widow was sitting in her store many millions of dollars up n the death of and two of her children were at her his distant cousin, the Duchess of Marikace when the inquirer entered. Her his distant cousin, the Duchess of Marikace grew red and then pule, as she torough, who was, before her marriage to the listened to the reading of the notice by insterned to the reasons the reporter.

Mrs. Frost burst into tears, and clasped her arms about the neck of her youngest child. I don't understand, she said. 'Me marry and my but stready he has become engaged in law-but stream, she said. 'Me marry and my but stready he has become engaged in law-but stream, she said that sure brought by his father, who does not husband scarcely cold in his grave.

When after a time the matter was explained to Mrs. Frost, she said that gased in the large years that must clapse beside and the could not see the object of the same stream of the identity of the comes his Although the little boys money spent crimoring to the learning at the large part of the la that gages in the long joints that must chapse bethat gages in the long joints that must chapse beends. Braid to match the circles, adding the fore it becomes his. Although the litma small pocket to one side. Handles of half drachm essence of encumbers, shred

Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, the political feeturer, is a handsome woman in the early Autumn of life; has smooth, bright brown hair, a fair makes a very pure and agreeable tottet soap complexion and gray eyes. She is clever as a for chapped hands from white Castile soap.

A Quiet Little Heroine.

little woman who has recently resigned her to give a delicate odor and mould. It essents position as assistant matron in the immigraton nureau of the Port of New York, is will have the fragrance of violets. remembered for a brave exploit which made her famous some years ago. She was sailing with her husband, captain of the stip Sharon, from Liverpool to St. Thomas, and when of the Banks of Newfoundland the ship ran into charge of his interests in his lecturing busia hurricane, which disabled her and caused ness. such consternation among the crew that they could do nothing to save the vessel. Cap'. Wilson was very ill with consumption, and the first and second mates had been disabled beam eners. Mrs. Wilson, who always salled raisins, two pounds of currants, one pound of with her husband and was skilful in the art of navigation, took command of the ship and in twenty-me days brought the Sharon fuls of chomman, three tablespoonfuls Liquette of Calls.

dinner parts to which one has been invited.

To call before sending out such an invita-To call after an engagement has been an-family.

cently returned from a prolonged absence.

To ascertain what are the prescribed hours turn to London has frequently taken a little walk in the grounds of Downing street. His After a removal from one part of the city to After breaktast he devotes himself to his cor- lace. another to send out cards with one's new ad- respondence, and for several hours is busy dress upon them.

to call first upon the newcomers to their

This stylish hat is of dark violet veivet, and or if they are newcomers

For the mother or chaperon to invite a gentleman to call. For a gentleman to call upon a lady if she of introduction or if an intimate friend of the house introduces nim. To Those About to Wed.

Always see that the soles of your boots and shoes are black. At a Roman Catholic wedding, where half the company were nobles. the bridegroom and his ushers had yellov soles to their shoes. In the elaborate ceremontal of the ritual they were required to kneel a number of times, and the gleaming of The Moorish Lady at Home.

The costumes of Moorish ladies, when in their cwa homes, are showy and brilliant. introduced by my friend Mme. Ben-Aben, says a traveller, I had the entree to several of these homes, and would pass through the I was expected filled with women-friends of ish coffee was served in exquisite Ka- for "a nickel." was indulged in; but conversation lagged wife must cook for her own husband.

Ribbon Case for Photographs.

and sachet powder form this dainty care gether for eighteen inches, turning up nine inches and overcasting the outer edges. Make Nored of all mutton cuts.

folding it over so the fringed ends will meet 1525." This is the date of Lu her's wedding.

Travelling Shorel and Bran Case, One pard of grass linen and two large circles of the linen pine inches in diameter. braid a large initial on each, or three rows of braid may be put on, beginning haif an inch om the outer edge. A piece a buil yard wide after taking hems an inch wide from the tined spirits of wine, one-quarter conce sper-

Mrs. Cieveland is the intest addition to the opponents of crinoline, and declares that she will never wear or countenance it.

Home-Made Tollet Soap.

A thrifty housewife who has plenty of time ecturer and irre-istible as a conversation. The soap is sliced very thin, and put in double botter, with glycerine equal to onetwentieth of its weight. After the soap has arited and mixed with the glycerine, let i Mrs. Annie E. Wilson, the trim, black-eyed partly cool, then stir in enough oil of cassia of orris root is used instead of cassia the soap Dr. Talungels Business Manager.

Mrs. De Witt Telmage makes her husband's pastoral and social engagements and has Delmonico Hedding Cake.

one pound butter, two pounds dark brown sugar, three-quarters of a pound of flour, one by the heavy sea which cast the ship on her cup dark molasses, ten eggs, three pounds of citron, one pound of almonds after they are bianched, one pound of figs, four tablespoonground cloves, one gill of brandy, one gill of sherry wine. stone the raisins, wash and dry thoroughly in the matter of making calls it is the cor | the currants, shred the citron, cut up the figs in small pieces, and put altogether in To call within a week and in person, after a | wooden towl and chop fine; chop and add the almonds; then sprinkle and rub thoroughly To call within a week after any entertain. With an extra one-half pound of flour that ment to which one has been invited.

To inclose cards when inviting a new action in the usual way, and the fruit put has been browned. The cake is lightly put quaintance upon whom one has never called. In last. Line the pans with thick-buatered paper and bake slowly in a moderate oven.

> The Art of Living Long. When Gladstone, who is in his eighty-fourth unced or a marriage has taken place in the year, rises he invariably takes a tepid bath, and every morning before breakfast while at To call upon an acquaintance who has re- Blarritz ne attended church, and since his rewith his private secretary and receiving such for the older residents in the city or street | political callers as may arrive.

To call promptly and in person after a first of port. At 5 o'clock, if disengaged, bread is a pleasant variety of corn bread, avitation.

To call promptly and in person after a first of port. At 5 o'clock, if disengaged, bread is a pleasant variety of corn bread, and relished by many who cannot eat corn-To make the first call upon people in a are selected to his taste. He takes soup, fish meal in any other form.

higher social position if one is asked to do so (if it is to his fancy), but usually dines of For the caller who arrived first to leave part from, he is very ford of rice pudding and prunes and rice, and upon either of these For a gentleman to ask for the lady of the but more especially the fermer, he would, if house as well as the young ladies, and to the eliquette of the dinner table permitted it, leave cards for her as well as for the gentleto his cheese has a liberal giass of port win-Half of this he takes with his cheese and sips the remainder in conversation over sert. When dining out Mr. Gladstone takes has invited him to do so, if he brings a letter | two or three glasses of champagne, concluding, as usual, with port. He does not drink coffee because it is seldom made to his liking, and, being astringent, keeps him awake. He wants to be left alone at 10 o'clock, and is in bed by 10.30. He remeins in bed until noon, and cures a cold by staying in bed twenty-four hours at a time.

Cleaning Rag Carpets

To clean rag carpets wring a cloth out of warm water and rub the carret with it, dipye, low leather was distracting and very pain- ping the cloth in the water each time a new Fearspace is to be rubbed. Do not wet the carpet, but only dampen it. A brush and soup may be used in the most soiled places.

The Breast of Mutton.

Comparatively few housekeepers seem aware of the value of the cheapest of all meat cuts, the mutton breast. We have just diped. outer door or barrier to find the room where our family of six, says a writer in Good Housekeeping, on a most delicious stew made from my hostess. Their slippers stood in rows a single breast, and have left for to-morrow a outside the half door, and they were sitting bowl of pressed meat for a lunch and for broth around on rugs, but I was allowed by cour- for a rice stew-not to mention the crust of with a pink and tesy to retain my shoes, and invited as the sweet fat which will shorten the next guest of honor to sit on the divan. Moor- "johnny-cake" or gingerbreat-and all this cups, and much polite staring (slowly) in just water enough to cover, until so tender that the bones could be easily A great deal of her husband's success is somewhat, as I did not discourse in Arabic, slipped, and that gelatinous condition so ments are embroidery and cooking, for every strained-returned to the pot. a little flou having been dredged over the meat to thicken the gravy. Regulate the quantity of broth to be used by the individual taste as regards One and a half yards of two contrasting stews, whether thick or thin. We like ours shades of four-inch ribbon, one-quarter yard "not too thick or too thin "-above all, not China silk to match elther ribbon, wadding sloppy. They can be spiced, flavored with enton or sea-oned simply with sait and per-Hem each ribbon; overcast the edges to, per; which we think best, because the meat on the breast of mution is the sweetest fin-

When decanters and carafes become dis-colored loside, so that shot, or sand, or fine coals will not clean e tuem. fil the bottle with finely chopped potato skins, cork tightly, and let it stand for three days, during which time the skins will terment; then empty and ache it cures by restoring a healthy confirmed with clear water, and the glass will be the nerves. The pains and aches of rheum as clear and sparking as when new. Mrs. Martin Luther's Bedding Ring.

The marriage ring of Luther's wife has recently teen discovered at Alana, not far from a bag of the slik, line with waiding, perfume and slip into the ribbon bag. Fringe the ends four inches, knot once, and five inches above the margin of the bag tie a long looped bow. Luthero-tatarin t von Boren-15 Juni The ring is ornamented with religious em blems and is like Luther's engagement ring, which is in the Art Museum in Leipsic.

Surdine Butter.

Twelve sardines, one half pound butter, sait and cayenne to taste. Scrape the sardines, with the butter, anding it gradually till all is hands had declared it to be here mixed in then add cayenne and sait to taste. press the paste into small pots, and store for use. This butter is delicious on toast, or made into sandwiches plat suice of cucumpers bolled for one in nute. time; then add the spirits of wine, add lastly night?"

or it will curdle. This is an excellent face ; suffer from the effects of the March winds.

Tengue Total.

Mince fine cold tongue enough to fill a cup, add to this a cup of cream and the beaten yolk of an egg, and heat in a double kettle.

Mince fine cold tongue enough to fill a cup, add to this a cup of cream and the beaten yolk of an egg, and heat in a double kettle. wash, and is a great comfort to ladies who yolk of an egg, and heat in a double kettle Toast three slices of bread, butter thin and

Empire Dress for Child. This dress is designed for a child of three fo six years. It is of white figured chalife. The cover with the creamed longue. Serve hot.

for calling in the place where one is living, or first meal usually consists of a hard-boiled square yoke opens over a white muslin making a visit, and to adhere to those hours. egg, a slice of tongue, with lea and toast. guimpe and sleeves, with epaulets of rich

When baking set aside one loaf of dough,

For luncheon Mr. Gladstone takes cold and when all the loaves are moulded into the meat, milk punding and cheese. He drinks pans, work into this loaf one cupful of fine To return a first call within a week and in a couple of glasses of light wine, corn meal, knead and let it rise very light; person.

PAIN AND SUFFERIN

How Little We Realize I Much There Is in the Wo

It Is Certain That Three-Quarter

It is Unnecessary.

And It Becomes Everybody's I to Stop It in All Such Case

Physical pain and suffering are often po we were led to these tellections by a his cident which took place recently, and demonstrated how surely happiness on on the relief of pain, and how easy and a simple matter it is to relieve pain and a

"For fally 10 years," he said. "I could get any rest, especially nights, from the my legs and chest and across my kidneys. Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve in the Toledo Bee, and I commended tak proving every day; indeed, I stready "I cannot say enough for this we remedy, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and over our land, for it would save lets of and lots of pain and suffering. I know it it is a fact that this remedy is the surest pain relievers. Sufferers from weak backache will be amazed at the rapidity

Laperialty should it be used at this season is the best Spring medicine for the It is purely vegetable and harmless, and

HER LENTEN OBSERVANC

Great Pleasure She W Deny Herself. It was the holy season, says the D Tribune. The g and specimen of mo womanhood who stood before the n to processe self-denial during the policent,

She dropped the tongs.

Two concess blanched simonds, one-half the left enrice paper.
Introduce of cucumbers bolled for one in nuce, "to be very pious. I the sat upon the couch while th heated the pleasures of the theatre.

He was scraping his throat.

He wiped the razor. 'ertainly you do."

He had turned in astonishment.

She squeezed the second lock from left ear with tremendous energy. war a small hat. Nor did he notice that he cut his so deeply was he buried in thought Power. (From Truth Vokes-That fellow over there is an ! tial politician.

Just the Name. From the Clothier and Furnisher. Clerk-I advise you to try these so We call them the messenger boy.

Applicant -- I don't know what is t insulator, but as an isolater poverty i How He Felt. Hrom Clothier and Furnisher. 1 for breakfast?

Jagway_Fetch mean ocean and an i skirts similar to the "FELIX" style selling at present—the greatest ob to Hoopslits is the name-we ca Dress-Extenders.

Carson - Indeed! Vokes - Yes. He owns at least half a Customer-Why? Clerk-Because they don't run. Civil Service Examination Examiner - What is the best insulate

Watter (to Jagway, who has been night with the biys) - What can I set

Hoopskirts

Socie It is not generally known, but i FACT nevertheless, that some of the ers of society have for years worn